The F rating means that this institution has been placed under the custodianship of regulatory authorities.

The FDIC generally has two options when it takes over a company: 1) sell it, either in whole or in parts, to other institutions that are able to honor its commitments; or 2) liquidate it. If you are a depositor with DOWNEY S&LA FA, you should contact the FDIC Division of Compliance and Consumer Affairs (800-934-3342), or the institution directly, for instructions on how the failed institution, and more specifically your account, is being handled.
